About DataCon.TW

DataCon.TW (Data Conference Taiwan) is organized by Taiwan Data Engineering Association (TDEA) founded by members of Taiwan Hadoop User Group, Taiwan Spark User Group, Taiwan Flink User Group, Taiwan Fluentd User Group, etc. It's an annual conference event about Hadoop, Spark, Flink and Big Data Stack related technologies and applications. This conference focus on sharing Big Data knowledge and use cases. Target audience are application developers and big data platform administrators.

DataCon.TW 2018 is the 10th annual event hosted by Taiwan Hadoop User Group. It was named by "Hadoop in Taiwan" (co-hosted with Trend Micro) and HadoopCon. HadoopCon 2015 is the first time to co-organized with Spark.TW. HadoopCon 2016 extend its scope to all Data Engineering related topics. In 2017, we decide to rename to DataCon.TW and co-organized with TWJUG.
